

Encyclopedia of ANIMALS

A collection of 21 lavishly illustrated large-format hardback wildlife books, with fully updated scientific data, plus 20 DVDs of National Geographic documentaries

Audiovisual Material

(20 DVDs - 40 hours of recordings)

- Living with lions
- Mountain gorillas
- Leopards lying in wait
- African giants
- The hidden face of dolphins
- Giant crocodiles
- In the domain of the Anaconda
- Transformations in the animal world
- Giant squids
- Hornets from hell
- Emperors of the ice
- Serengeti vultures
- Owls, the silent hunters
- The seducer of the Australian bush
- The island of vampire birds
- Jewels of the Caribbean sea
- Hunting the great white shark
- Salmon against the current
- Life on the reefs
- Hunting the giant tuna

Published work

(21 volumes - 2,000 pages)

- 5 volumes on Mammals: 480 pages
- 2 volumes on Reptiles: 192 pages
- 1 volume on Amphibians: 96 pages
- 2 volumes on Invertebrates: 192 pages
- 5 volumes on Birds: 480 pages
- 5 volumes on Fishes: 480 pages
- 1 Dictionary Index

